NATIONAL NURSING HOME WEEK AT HOMESTEAD WAS A CELEBRATION OF STAFF, RESIDENTS AND LIFE

National Nursing Home Week of 2011 was a busy week at Homestead. On Sunday, May 8, in honor of ladies and in celebration of mothers, The First Annual Ladies Tea, kicked off the festivities for the week. The Homestead hostesses, Amy Loos, Laurie Gross and Colleen Andrews baked and decorated hundreds of cupcakes. Michael Jank entertained by playing the piano and violin. He led a sing-a-long that included favorite tunes.

Monday, May 9 was the day chosen to celebrate Homestead's 48th Birthday. Several residents, vendors, and dignitaries attended. "Happy Birthday" was sung by the group and led by the entertainer, Murry Johnston. Tuesday was a special day for Homestead to celebrate our dedicated staff by providing lunch for them. Six foot deli sandwiches were provided with chips and beverages.

The Model A club rolled into the parking lot on Wednesday, May 10 and showed off their autos to the male residents. They were treated to an ice cream social that was provided by the male staff members of Homestead. They even shared with some of us gals! Thursday was the Volunteer luncheon.

The staff also prepared a special lunch for the residents in each dining room. They were given a choice of BLT's and Tuna Melt Sandwiches. The food was prepared in their dining rooms so the smells of the food prepared nearby increased appetites and the fun.

The big event each year is the Homestead Barbeque and this year was no exception. The weather forced the event to be held indoors but this didn't limit the karaoke, "Shower Tunes" nor the feast of grilled hot dogs, burgers and all of the fixings. The Moeller family provided dessert in honor of their parents 67th Wedding Anniversary. More than 200 guests were served!
